In addition to managing the team, Harris and HBSE also operate Prudential Center, the Devils' home arena, turning it into one of the world's top-5 venues through strategic investments in technology and services designed to amplify the fan experience.

When Josh and his partners purchased the team in 2013, he made a commitment not only to get the three-time Stanley Cup Champions back on track, but to also invest significantly in Newark and surrounding communities. THADDEUS "TAD" BROWN — CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, HBSE/ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Named Chief Executive Officer by HBSE Co-Founders David Blitzer and Josh Harris on July 12, 2021, assumed role in full on August 3. In his role as CEO, Brown oversees all business and growth functions for the HBSE brand and its properties, including the New Jersey Devils (NHL), Prudential Center and Philadelphia 76ers (NBA).

Brown joined HBSE after nearly two decades with the Houston Rockets, Toyota Center and Clutch City Sports and Entertainment, 15 of which were spent as CEO. In his role in Houston, he was a member of the NBA's Board of Governors, served as the representative to the Executive Committee, and served on the league's Media Committee. Over his tenure, Brown helped position the Rockets as one of the NBA's premier global franchises, as well as a cornerstone of the Houston community. The business thrived under his leadership, setting Toyota Center records for sellouts, attendance, total events, and customer satisfaction. Additionally, Houston hosted NBA All-Star Weekend in both 2006 and 2013, as Brown played a key role in making Toyota Center the first NBA building to have two All-Star Games over a seven-year period. His extensive knowledge of media rights helped fuel the Rockets growth, including the creation of the Houston Regional Sports Network in 2012, now established as AT&T SportsNet Southwest.

In 2017, Brown orchestrated the sale of the Rockets by Leslie Alexander to Tilman Fertitta for a then-NBA and global sports franchise record $2.2 billion.

In addition to guiding the business growth and success of the Rockets and Toyota Center, Brown led the organization's strong community outreach and charitable endeavors. He was past President of the Houston Children's Charities, served on the Board of the Greater Houston Partnership's Opportunity Houston Committee and the Board of Central Houston, as well as the Boys & Girls Clubs of America.

Brown's move to HBSE also reunited him with longtime friend and colleague, Daryl Morey, the 76ers President of Basketball Operations. During their time together in Houston from 2007-2020, the Rockets compiled a 640-400 (.615) record, the second-best of any NBA team, while becoming one of the NBA's most successful franchises.

Prior to joining the Rockets, Brown was a Founder and President of Streetball Partners International. For more than a decade, he worked in partnership with NBC Sports and the NBA to build Streetball into the world's largest global grassroots basketball property.

Brown is a graduate of Colgate University, where he was a four-year starter and three-year captain of the varsity basketball team. He and his wife, Janice, have four daughters.

Prudential Center is the world-class sports and entertainment venue located in downtown Newark, New Jersey. Opened in October 2007, the state-of-the-art arena is the home of the National Hockey League's (NHL) three-time Stanley Cup Champion New Jersey Devils, Seton Hall University's NCAA Division I Men's Basketball program, and more than 210 concerts, family shows and special events each year.

Kansas City-based HOK Sport+Venue+Entertainment, a renowned leader in sports facility design and construction, served as the project architect. The exterior of the building was designed by Morris Adjmi Architects of New York City and is based on the rich history of Newark – the nation's third-oldest major city. Newark's El Taller Colaborativo, among the largest and fastest-growing minority-owned architectural firms in the northeastern United States, also collaborated on the project.

Prudential Center recently celebrated its 15th year and has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of the sports and entertainment industry. "The Rock" is an industry leader, not only in New Jersey, but worldwide, hosting over two-million guests annually. Ranked in the Top five globally by Pollstar, Billboard and Venues Today, Prudential Center is recognized as one of the premier venues not only in the United States but in the World. It has also become one of the hottest venues of its size in the United States and hosts diverse programing which includes K-Pop, Latin, R&B, Hip-Hop, Rock, Pop, and much more. In the past two years, Prudential Center has established itself as the "North American Home of K-Pop" and a must-play Northeast destination for Latin acts. Additionally, the building's burgeoning sports properties business includes the Never Forget Tribute Classic and Legacy Classic for HBCU's, Championship Boxing, along with college wrestling and professional wrestling.

Part of Newark's Downtown Core District Redevelopment Plan, Prudential Center is bound by Edison Place on the north, Lafayette Street on the south, Mulberry Street on the east, and off Broad Street on the west.

Prudential Center is located just two city blocks from Newark's Penn Station, and is among the most accessible sports venues in the country, serviced by New Jersey Transit's rail and bus lines, PATH, light rail and AMTRAK.

Prudential Center is a multi-purpose venue that holds 16,514 fans for hockey, and serves as the home to Seton Hall University Men's Basketball in the Big East Conference.

Versatile enough to hold any sized event with more loading docks and storage space than its competitors. Prudential Center is capable of hosting concerts, comedy shows, mixed martial arts events, World Championship Boxing, family shows, conventions, corporate and private events, ice shows and more with some of the quickest load-in and load-out times in the world.

Over the last several years, Prudential Center has hosted the 2012 NHL Stanley Cup Finals and professional basketball games including the New Jersey Nets and the New York Liberty. Prudential Center also hosted the 2019, 2022 & 2023 MTV VMAs, UFC 288, 2013 NHL Entry Draft, the 2011/2012 NBA Drafts, the 2011 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals, 2009 WWE Hell in a Cell, 2016-2022 Never Forget College Basketball Classic, 2021 & 2022 Legacy Classic, Rolling Stones, Elton John, Taylor Swift, Bruce Springsteen, Garth Brooks, Andrea Bocelli, Bruno Mars, Foo Fighters, The Who, My Chemical Romance, Iron Maiden, Justin Bieber, Pitbull, Paul McCartney, Shawn Mendes, Michael Buble, Justin Timberlake, Bad Bunny, Kevin Hart, Chris Rock, Sebastian Maniscalco, BTS, BLACKPINK, ATEEZ, NCT 127, Stray Kids, Post Malone, Marc Anthony, and Daddy Yankee. The Rock has also hosted a speech by President Barack Obama, First Lady Michelle Obama, Newark Mayor Ras Baraka and former New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's respective inauguration parties.

The Devils' practice facility – RWJBarnabas Health Hockey House – is located along Lafayette Street. Prudential Center is one of only four National Hockey League arenas to have a connecting practice rink. It also serves as a home for many youth, high school and adult hockey programs and in New Jersey.

Prudential Center features a four-level seating bowl, four sideline suites, and two exclusive club level lounges. There are 74 suites spanning two private concourses, along with two larger party suites.

On Suite Level One, The Lofts are a premium space inspired by the classic styling of old New Jersey and overlooks the arena floor on the north end. The Lofts deliver exceptional views, outstanding aesthetics, all-inclusive dining and an unparalleled overall event experience. The 350-seat restaurant on the south end overlooks both the main rink and RWJBarnabas Health Hockey House. The restaurant offers extraordinary cuisine while watching events from an outstanding viewpoint.

In 2017, Prudential Center, along with LED solutions company Trans-Lux, unveiled the largest, in-arena, center-hung scoreboard in the world at that time. At 88,401 pounds, 9,584.9 square feet and almost four stories tall, the massive scoreboard contains 29,610,024 SMD pixels.

Some of Prudential Center's best features are its ultra-wide concourses which allow for ease of movement, and an array of superb food options (including the first gluten-free offerings in an arena). Carefully designed sightlines create spectacular views from every seat while giving visitors an intimate feel for the action.

The fan experience begins outside Prudential Center in Championship Plaza, a brickpaved, fan message-driven courtyard. Championship Plaza features a 22-foot tall, three-ton, metal "Ironman" hockey player statue and live entertainment with a block-party atmosphere during FanFest celebrations and pre-event attractions.

The GRAMMY Museum Experience™ Prudential Center is housed within Prudential Center. The Experience marks the first GRAMMY Museum outpost to be built on the East Coast and, similar to the original GRAMMY Museum in Los Angeles, the Experience is dedicated to exploring the past, present and future of music, and the cultural context from which it emerges, while casting a focused spotlight on the deep musical roots of New Jersey.

Prudential Center's parent company Harris Blitzer Sports & Entertainment also owns and operates White Eagle Hall located in Jersey City, New Jersey. Originally constructed in 1910 and reopened in 2017 after a multi-year, multi-million-dollar renovation, the 8,000-square-foot live performance and private event venue can fit up to 800 guests. HBSE was also selected to restore and maximize another iconic Jersey City venue, the Loew's Theatre which is anticipated to re-open in 2025.

1994-95 STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- The Devils' .542 regular-season winning percentage was the lowest for a Stanley Cup Champion since Toronto went 32-27-11 (.536) in 1966-67.
- The club started all of its playoff series on the road; no other champion had accomplished that feat since the 16-team playoff format was introduced in 1979-80. The 1966-67 Maple Leafs were the last team to start all of their playoff series on the road. In 1966-67, just four clubs qualified for the playoffs, and there were just two rounds.
- New Jersey went 10-1 on the road in the playoffs. The 10 wins are an NHL record (since tied).
- The Devils became the sixth NHL club to win a championship in their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance, and the first ever to sweep.

1995-96 NEW JERSEY DEVILS

JERSEY DEVIL NAME & LEGEND

After it was announced in May of 1982 that the Colorado Rockies franchise was moving to New Jersey, several state newspapers ran a contest asking readers for their nickname suggestions.

So why Devils? Said Devils' founder, the late Dr. John J. McMullen, at the time, "It's a great nickname because it combines the folklore of South Jersey with the Meadowlands."

For those unfamiliar with the legend, the New Jersey Devil dates back some 250 years. While there are many variations of the story, it most frequently begins with Mrs. Leeds, a farm woman from the Pine Barrens region of South Jersey. Already the mother of 12 children, when Mrs. Leeds found out that the 13th was on the way, she apparently exclaimed in despair, "Let it be a devil!"

In addition to being a busy mother, it should be noted that Mrs. Leeds was rumored to have dabbled in sorcery and many thought her to be a witch. On the night of her delivery in 1735, fierce thunderstorms hit the area and an air of uneasiness surrounded her house. When she finally gave birth, the offspring was a demonic creature that has alternately been reported to have had the features of a bat, snake, kangaroo, as well as a man. In any case, the creature quickly flew out an open window and immediately began cutting a wide swath of havoc and destruction throughout the state.

The legend has been fueled through the years by alleged sightings. The devil has been the object of numerous hunts and other pursuits, none of which have apparently been successful.

NEW JERSEY DEVILS

WHILE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

SPORTS & THE ARTS

Prudential Center includes original abstract, contemporary and figurative paintings created by the renowned artists of Los Angeles, CA-based Sports & the Arts, and have been selected from across the United States and Canada.

The 200-foot wide by 30-foot high free-form mural on the west side of Prudential Center's Grand Concourse was created on site by artist Tom Mosser, and depicts local points of interest, architecture and teams. The mural is titled "Impressionistic Realism," and features artwork that captures the essence of New Jersey's sports and entertainment history.

RWJBARNABAS HEALTH HOCKEY HOUSE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

On March 16, 2016 the New Jersey Devils announced Barnabas Health as Official Health Care Partner of the hockey team and sports and entertainment arena. The announcement also included the unveiling of a new name and logo for Prudential Center's practice facility, now called the RWJBarnabas Health Hockey House.

The agreement launched the Devils and Prudential Center's Marquee Partnership program, naming Barnabas Health as a member. The new platform will align the most powerful brands in Jersey committed to unifying and inspiring the lives of the families, neighbors and communities throughout the state.

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAZA

Prudential Center's Championship Plaza is an outdoor area celebrating the rich 34-year history and tradition of the New Jersey Devils. Located across from PNC Bank Tower on Mulberry Street between Edison Place and Market Street in Newark, it has become the gathering place for Devils' fans before and after each game.

The centerpiece of Championship Plaza is an in-ground, 60-foot in diameter Devils' logo. Constructed of granite, the logo is surrounded by pieces of stone commemorating each of the team's three Stanley Cup Championships. A 22-foot tall, 7,000-pound, stainless steel hockey player statue, sculpted by New Jersey native Jon Krawczyk, graces the north end of the plaza on Market Street. Championship Plaza also include bricks recognizing the team's 1987-88 Patrick Division Playoff Championship, five Eastern Conference Championships and nine Atlantic Division titles.

Centered along Mulberry Street is a solid granite, custom-sculpted Prudential Rock. Prudential Financial's well-known brand symbol was inspired by the Rock of Gibraltar, and represents the company's strength, stability and financial security. Prudential has been part of the Newark community since its founding in 1875.

Devils players are extremely generous with their time both on and off the ice. Throughout this past season, the players have participated in over 264 events ranging from Group Nights to Hockey Clinics where they can continue to expand their effort in the Newark Community and beyond.

Cory's Keepers

- New Jersey Devils goaltender Cory Schneider and his wife Jill, launched "Cory's Keepers," four seasons ago where they host community organizations and give them the opportunity to come to a Devils home game. All invitees get to sit behind the net for a game, received a Cory's Keepers t-shirt and get to meet Cory and his wife after the game.

Squad 21

- Going into its third year, Devils forward Kyle Palmieri has a military recognition program called "Squad21" that offers active or veteran service members the chance to attend a Devils home game during the regular season with a post-game meet and greet.

Movember

- Movember is an annual event involving the growing of moustaches during the month of November to raise awareness of men's health issues, such as prostate cancer, testicular cancer and men's suicide.
- Former Devils Forward, Adam Henrique participated every year and grows his annual mustache, that fans look forward to and helps not only raise money but brings awareness to the cause.
- Adam increased his efforts during the 2017-18 season with post-game meet and greets, customized Movember merchandise and hosting the inaugural Rico's Soiree. All proceeds collected supported Movember and together he raised over $107,000 finishing as the top fundraising individual and the Devils finished as the top fundraising team.

Andy Greene Hockey School

- Devils Captain, Andy Greene, hosts an annual hockey school in Trenton, Michigan for all levels. The Andy Greene Hockey School strives to be different than the others. The hockey school experience is for both young girls and boys and the focus is to have meaningful impact on the skaters' current skill level, as well as their overall understanding, appreciation and enjoyment of the game. The hope is to develop well-rounded athletes.

Taylor Hall Charity Ball Hockey Tournament

- Taylor Hall hosted the 5th annual Taylor Hall Charity Ball Hockey Tournament in Kingston, Ontario this past summer where 30 other NHL players played alongside Taylor for a good cause. The tournament helps raise money to benefit the local boys and girls club and all proceeds will go to help with the organizations subsidy programs.

NEW JERSEY DEVILS FOUNDATION AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Devils 50/50 Ticket Raffle

- The Devils 50/50 Raffle benefits the Devils Care Foundation raising over $298,000 this past season. The raffle tickets are sold from the start of each Devils home game through the end of the second period intermission. The winning number – determined through a random drawing out of the pool of purchased tickets for that game – is announced over the public announcement system and displayed on the Jumbo Tron during the third period of Devils games.

Mystery Pucks and T-Shirt Sale

- Two to three times a year, the Devils' wives and girlfriends get together to sell autographed items to partially benefit the Devils Care Foundation. With a donation, fans receive a puck autographed by one of the New Jersey Devils players. Devils' wives and girlfriends begin to sell items on tables on the main concourse of the Prudential Center until they sell out (which is usually in minutes).

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Blood Drive

- The New Jersey Devils and official partner RWJBarnabas Health hosted the 2nd annual blood drive in coordination with the American Red Cross. The event took place on Saturday, March 10, at Prudential Center. This partnership provided a unique opportunity for the American Red Cross and the New Jersey Devils to work together and increase much needed local blood supplies.

Hospital Visits

- In December, members of the team, staff and the alumni association traveled to several hospital locations within the RWJBarnabas hospital community. Players and staff met many patients who receive various treatments at the hospital following a practice session at Prudential Center in Newark.
  - Hospitals included annually are: Community Medical Center, Toms River, NJ; RWJ University Hospital, Hamilton, NJ; RWJ University Hospital, Somerville, NJ; Monmouth Medical Center Southern Campus, Lakewood, NJ; Monmouth Medical Center, Long Branch, NJ; Clara Maas Medical Center, Jersey City, NJ;

Newark Beth Israel Medical Center and Children's Hospital of NJ, Newark NJ; RWJ University Hospital New Brunswick, New Brunswick, NJ; RWJ University Hospital Children's Specialized Hospital, New Brunswick, NJ; RWJ University Hospital Rahway, Rahway, NJ; Saint Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, NJ.

Community Day of Giving

- New this year, some of the players, their significant others and Devils alumni went to local schools/community centers to spread holiday joy throughout the community. The players purchased gifts for each student in the classroom with an item from their wish list.
  - Schools/Community Centers in Newark, NJ are: La Casa de Don Pedro; Brighter's Tomorrow's Children Academy; Newark Day Center; Urban League Child Care Center

Hockey Fights Cancer

- As part of the NHL-wide initiative to raise money and awareness for cancer research, the Devils help raise money to help support local cancer patients and their charitable organizations. A portion of the proceeds from the sale are donated to Hockey Fights Cancer. Wives and girlfriends are stationed on the main concourse accepting donations through t-shirt sales and mystery pucks sales to raise money for cancer.
- Hockey Fights Cancer is a joint initiative founded in December 1998 by the National Hockey League (NHL) and the National Hockey League Players' Association (NHLPA) to raise money and awareness for hockey's most important fight. It is support by NHL Member Clubs, NHL Alumni, the NHL Official's Association, Professional Hockey Trainers and Equipment Mangers, corporate marketing partners, broadcast partners and fans throughout North America. The goal of HFC is to raise money and awareness for national and local organizations involved in cancer care and research.
- The Devils hosted Hockey Fights Cancer Night at Prudential Center on Friday, November 24th. Devils' executives, coaches and broadcasters wore HFC lavender ties, while HFC-themed merchandise was available for sale, including ties, hats, and scarves to help increase awareness for the program.
- To date, HFC has raised more than $15 million via the National Hockey League's United States and Canadian charitable foundations.
- For 2017-18 season, the Devils wore lavender warm up jerseys and taped their sticks with lavender tape that were auctioned off. Wives and girlfriends sold mystery pucks and t-shirts that sold out on the concourse quickly! Total funds raised were over $57,123.78.
- Brian Boyle and his family dropped the ceremonial puck and $28,561.89 of the proceeds raised were donated to the Boston Children's Hospital in the Boyle's honor.

Community Drives

- The New Jersey Devils host winter coat, toy, and canned food drives at home games during the regular season every year. All donated items are given to select local community partners that the Devils work with throughout the season. Devils' game night drives are successful for one reason – we receive tremendous support from our fans.
- At each of our drives, wives/girlfriends of the Devils' players are on hand to assist in the collections at each of Prudential Center's entrances. For approximately four weeks prior to the events, each drive is promoted through press releases, MSG+, Devils Radio broadcasts, as well as scoreboard and public address announcements, to raise the public's awareness of each drive as well as each organization involved.
- Last season the following was collected:
  - Coat Drive: 3,000 coats collected and distributed
  - Toy Drive: 7,100 toys collected and distributed
  - Canned Food Drive: 100,000 pounds of food totaling 75,000 meals collected and distributed

Covenant House Sleep Out

- Devils teamed up with the Covenant House to hold first-ever Sleep Out for Homeless Youth at Prudential Center's Championship Plaza on Saturday, March 24. $141,600 was raised for the first ever sleep out with funds going back to the Covenant House.
- Devils forward, Miles Wood, donated two pairs of new balance shoes for each child in the Covenant House New Jersey. The Covenant House New Jersey provides food, shelter, immediate crisis care, and essential services such as education and job training to homeless youth in seven cities across New Jersey. When you sleep out, you help keep the lights on and doors open for the thousands of kids who seek a way off the streets each year.

Future Goals Hockey Scholar Program and STEM Day

- The New Jersey Devils hosted over 400 local students and parents at Prudential Center for STEM Day 2018 celebrating Future Goals, their education partnership with the National Hockey League Players' Association (NHLPA) and the National Hockey League (NHL®). The partnership focuses on teaching STEM skills through the game of hockey inside area classrooms. Prior to the Devils game, students from around the area participated in STEM Day, an opportunity for students and parents to explore the connection between science, technology, engineering, math and hockey. Activities allowed students to measure the curve of a stick, estimate area of the ice, judge angles during a shot on goal and test friction of a puck on ice.

NJs Healthy Hat Trick School Assembly Program

- NJ DEVILS HEALTHY HAT TRICK is a school based assembly program geared towards elementary & middle school students throughout the state of New Jersey which teaches the importance of maintaining an active and healthy lifestyle. Presented by our energetic and educational host, Goldin Martinez of "Get Focused" and performed by NJ Devil, official mascot of the New Jersey Devils, the duo enlighten and entertain students through a fun and interactive experience about the importance of: Healthy food choices, Physical fitness and the FUNdamentals of hockey.

COMMUNITY HONOREES

Prudential Heroes Among Us

- Prudential Center and the Devils proudly support the many heroes among us. In partnership with Prudential, the Devils highlight a hero during every home game of the season. The New Jersey Devils are proud to honor local first responders and military personnel through the Prudential Heroes Among Us program. Last season, the team honored 96 year old World War II veteran, John Beatrice, who was awarded the Asian Pacific Campaign Medal, World War II Victory medal, and the Good Conduct medal for his service.

Walmart Community Playmaker

- Walmart and the New Jersey Devils teamed up in an initiative to recognize and honor exceptional youth hockey players that have made a positive impact on our community. This Community Playmaker program is simply about giving thanks. Giving thanks and recognizing those members in our community who are dedicated to improving the lives of others and being a force for good. For the last home game of the New Jersey Devils regular season, during Fan Appreciation Night, Walmart invited back all 16 Walmart Community Playmakers with one guest to come together and celebrate each other's commitment to the positive impact each one of them has had and will continue to have on their communities. This experience allows the playmakers to network and share one another's stories of the great things they've been able to accomplish off of the ice.

CareOne Hockey Mom

- CareOne and the New Jersey Devils teamed up to honor Hockey Moms throughout the season. Hockey Moms that are nominated are moms that go above and beyond for their children who play hockey and the hockey community overall. Winners received a VIP experience at a Devils home game. This past season, the Devils honored 7 moms.

ALUMNI

Alumni Association

- The Devils Alumni Association was formed to bring together former Devils' players for enjoyable civic activities, charitable fund-raisers and charity/community service programs, and to develop means to help promote amateur hockey. Each year, Devils' alumni makes visits throughout the community on behalf of the team. The purpose of this program is to assist in their education at the college or university of their choice. Winners are nominated by their athletic director or coach and complied with scholarship rules, which included the following criteria: through their most recent grading period, the applicant must have attained a high school cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 grading system) or equivalent grade if the student's school uses a different grading system. Additionally, the applicant must have shown a commitment to volunteer work and community service through continued participation in a variety of projects or community organizations. Community activities should reflect that the applicant is unselfishly "giving back" to society and that the applicant is motivated to serve. Each winner must be accepted for admission on a full-time matriculating basis to a two-or four-year academic program at an accredited post-secondary educational institution. This marked the 14th year of the alumni association's scholarship program.
- The recipients of this year's scholarships were Charles Aborisade, Keegan Heher, Michael Lojewski, and Tommy Stuppi.

POWER-PLAY GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER-PLAY PERCENTAGE: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORTHAND GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout.

Prudential

In 1875, Prudential founder John Dryden chose Newark as the home for an idea that would change America forever: life insurance for everyday families.

Today, we're doing more than ever to champion the aspirations of Newark families. Through partnerships across the city, we're creating avenues for new ideas and technologies to emerge. For businesses, nonprofit organizations and educational institutions to thrive. And to help individuals achieve the promise of prosperity for generations to come.

We began with a sense of purpose that lives on today in our commitment to Newark and communities around the world.

Prudential is a proud partner of the New Jersey Devils.
